GOYAP DESKTOP APP

Your office phone. On any computer.

Make and take calls on your business number from your computer, wherever you work. Use the app on Windows, Mac or Linux, or simply open GoYap in any web browser.

Nothing to install. No special software.

Open GoYap in your web browser, sign in and you're ready to take calls. Ideal for home working, hot desks and new starters. Prefer an app? Install it on Windows, Mac or Linux.

Your office number, anywhere

Calls go out on your business number, whether you're in the office, at home or on the road.

See who's available

Live status for every colleague, so you know who's free before you transfer a call.

Chat and presence

Send a quick message to a colleague and set your own status in a click.

Everything in one place

Calls, voicemail and call history together, with click-to-call from your contacts.

Conference calls

Set up a conference and invite colleagues and customers in seconds.

Works with your other devices

Use it alongside your desk phone and GoYap Mobile, all on the same extension.

Free communications review

We'll look at how your business uses its phones today and recommend the right setup.

Everything your team needs, in one window

Calls, chat, contacts, voicemail and conferencing sit together in one simple screen, so your team spends less time switching between tools.

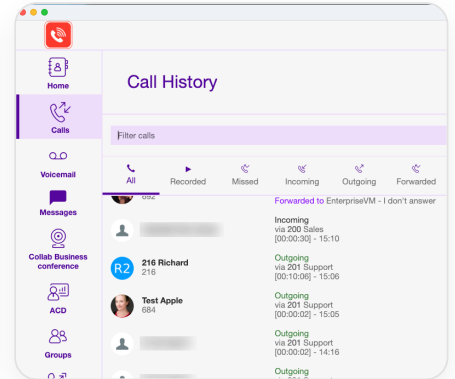

Set your status

Let colleagues know if you're at your desk, in a meeting or away.

Chat with colleagues

Instant messages alongside your calls.

Call history

Every call in one list, ready to call back.

Call reporting

Good to know: some add-ons, such as CRM integration, need the desktop app installed rather than the web browser version. Add-ons are charged separately.

See it first. Then try it free.

We'll show you how the desktop app works for your team in a short demo, then set you up with a free trial, usually within minutes.
